PROSPECTING

Accelerating your prospecting activities with engaging conversation

Most group retirement opportunities are developed through a consultative sales approach. To support your prospecting activities, we've designed a variety of materials to help you uncover new opportunities and start conversations.

Sales materials to accelerate opportunity development

Common Wealth's Advisor Portal offers research-based insights, financial wellness education and sales materials to help you align the benefits of a group plan with your clients' goals, needs and challenges.

Prospecting materials include email templates, brochures, infographics, and videos designed to help you:

- attract new clients
- reengage existing clients to upgrade their plan
- stay connected to members who have terminated from a group plan

We're happy to create custom content, personalize client-facing materials with your contact info and help you develop outreach campaigns to engage your clients.

IMPLEMENTING

Seamless onboarding, digital administration and responsive support

Common Wealth delivers a streamlined onboarding experience that, in partnership with advisors, guides employers through each step of the way. Employers can be up and running in as little as 4 weeks.

A dedicated retirement specialist will work with you and your client to manage every step of the implementation, from the initial kickoff call to the first payroll run and ongoing annual plan reviews.

Post onboarding, we'll continue to work with you to optimize plan participation and utilisation, resulting in higher rates of enrollment, asset growth and retention.

Common Wealth offers responsive support by phone, email, chat, and online documentation.

"They make the implementation very easy, streamlined, and fast. Member onboarding and enrollment are fully digital, and I would argue that Common Wealth offers the easiest-to-run plan for small and mid-sized businesses in Canada."

EXPANDING YOUR BUSINESS

Building greater lifetime value through long-term member relationships

We view our product as putting advisors at the heart of the client experience. Your feedback is key in evolving our product strategy so we can be responsive to client and member needs.

When a group plan member retires or changes jobs, they remain a permanent part of your book of business through your plan with Common Wealth.

Our user-friendly experience and personalized suggestions offer retirement planning at scale to support members as they move through their career and into retirement. The automation and efficiencies of our tech stack also enable us to give members low fees for life.

Overall, we offer better value for members which encourages higher participation, usage and lifetime value.

"I've really appreciated the simplicity of setting up a group retirement plan with Common Wealth. Their client onboarding is much easier and more streamlined. This allows me to allocate more time to my clients, which is incredibly valuable."
